

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PHŒNICES, NECHONIS JUSSU. AFRICAM
CIRCUMNAVIGANTES.

We were the first that ever burst
Into that silent sea.

Coleridge's Ancient Mariner.

AFRICA porrectum quo sidere terminet orbem
Oceanique amnes, terrarum extrema, reflectat,
Scire Necho, rerumque ardet penetrare tenebras.
Nec mora: compactæ naves: veniuntque vocati,
Mos quibus ignotas invisere puppibus undas,
Perque triumphatos virtutem extendere fluctus:
Ac simul Autumnus^a ducebat plenior annum,
Admonuit sperata dies contendere in altum,
Et fatis dare vela: ferunt sua flamina classem.

^a According to Rennell, the expedition would sail towards the end of the year. The first resting place would be on the southern part of the east coast. The second would be near the mouth of the Niger: and it would return to Egypt in the middle of the third year.

Littus Erythræum, positasque in rupibus urbes,
Et portus, loca nota, legunt. Arabumque per oras
Mollia prætereunt halantes thura recessus;
Eminus impendent post flavos nubila colles
Myrrhea, tellurisque sinum, sylvasque natantes,
Et mare divino fluitantia rore vaporant.

Itur continuò scopulorum immania terga
Prætentasque inter syrtes, dum littus inhorret
Arctius, angustoque rigent in limine fauces
Difficiles, dictæque olim cognomine Diræ^b.
Dī favere tamen: jamque illi largius æquor
Et dubiam^b invadunt proris fatalibus undam.

Plurimus inde dies sequitur neque marmoris unquam
Cærulei species variata, aut aeris alti;
Vix super obscurum pelagus, per candida longè
Littora conspiciunt informia tecta, domosque
Æthiopum, clarisque micantes fluctibus umbras.
At subito cœli leges sensere refixas,
Et nova fœderibus succedere sæcula ruptis
Infandum—tacito palantia sidera nisu
Solennes mutare choros, neque tramite currus
Flectere sol noto: quin seræ ubi conditus olim
Decessit nocti, freta conserit igne recenti—
Tota simul cœli species invertitur, umbras,
Obliqui quoties densantur luminis ictu,
In latus Austrinum formæ rerumque hominumque

^b Babel-mandel.

Conjiciunt—Illi multa obstupuere gementes,
Multa reformidant, ne cœli signa ferantur
Orbe alio, veteremque fidem perjura novarint.

Talibus auspiciis suspecta per æquora classis
Fert hyemem, quam longa, adversaturque periclis,
Longius emensura viam, nisi tempore multo
Deficerent farra in tardos exhausta labores :
Avertant pelago proras, et littore sicco
Consistunt : summâ naves religantur arenâ.
Nec certos petiere Lares : ubi dædala tellus
Invitat, posuere domos, camposque silentes
Perfringunt, ferroque nitentia jugera signant.
Undique præcingens tenebroso limite claudit
Silva locum : hîc fœtus Natura enixa superbit
Immensos : foliisque virent majoribus umbræ,
Grassanturque inter latebras procera ferarum
Corpora, sublimes tenui cervice cameli,
Cornigerique sues, hirsutaque sæcla leonum.
Inde diu expectata seges : ter fluxa vicissim
Cornua luna cavat, ter plenum accrescit in orbem.
Suave erat interea securâ in pace repostis
Mugitus audire undæ, æquatumque sonorem
Assidui fluctus, fractosque ad littora planctus.
Suave ita sub somnis in dulcia limina ferri
Inque domos, vocesque procul captare suorum,
Dum lentâ, lugubre sonans, mare constrepit undâ
Et querulas saxis voces illidit acutis.
Quale quis aeriis tendens sub vespere sylvis

Mœstius audierit venti increbescere murmur,
Et cœli propiora allabi numina credat.

Et jam maturis se frugibus induit æstas,
Et frumenta diu sub sole excocta potenti
Expectant falcem : Per agrum collecta juventus
Nititur, et gelidâ raptim succiditur horâ
Flava Ceres, cum jam ridentibus obtulit arvis
Hesperus os placidum—Læti componere curant
Aggestas segetes, sollennique ordine pompæ
Ad mare deducunt messem, stipantque carinis.
Mox socias mœsti sedes et amabile linquunt
Hospitium, similes avibus, quibus imperat annus
Frigidus exsilio parvos mutare penates.

Jamque instare viæ sinit indulgentia cœli
Otia per, placidosque dies—sub solibus æquis
Leniter impellunt maria exultantia venti*,
Sidera nec pluvios meditantur pallida rores.
Classis item (neque enim ventus certissimus unquam
Vertitur adversoque ruens e cardine tardat)
Labitur, haud invita, natatque simillima nubi,
Quæ lentè æstivum tranaverit aurea cælum.
Tempore non illo sulcos versare sonantes
Remigio nautæ assuescunt: ingloria ponunt
Arma, deo tantùm confisi; et corda trahuntur
Dulce per augurjum: nec saltem credere possunt
Quin jam deducant magnum ver illud in orbem

* The Trade Winds.

Alcyones, cupidis innixæ fluctibus: illæ
 Ante volant certè, et præspargunt marmora ponti
 Deliciis: venti exoptant æquare sequendo.

Sic iter accelerat præsens fortuna laborum,
 Ocyus heu quantum mutata! Angustior undas
 Vexatas secat, et saxis longe ultima terræ
 Meta riget: cursum flectendo vincere certant.
 At venti transversa fremunt: ruit horridus imber,
 Velleraque includunt nebularum tenuia pontum.
 Intereà ingentes circumvolitare volucres,
 Et veluti simulacra modis pallescere miris
 Fluctivagæ, et jactare alas rumore sinistro.
 Quin et inaccessi nimbo in vertice montis
 Forma, humana parùm, sedet, aut sedisse videtur,
 Scilicet ut præsens illas custodiat oras;
 Cui caput horrendum nocturnis atrior umbris
 Umbra tegit, tenebrisque procul duplicatur imago—
 Obstupuere omnes, veriti ne pallida mortis
 Regna adeant, latique premant confinia mundi
 Dementes, ubi mox sine sole inamabilis horror
 Obruat, et volitent exsanguia corpora circum.

Eheu! quid memorem quæ mille pericula ponti
 Pertulerint, cum jam, superato limite, tandem
 Obvertant Boreali axi per cærula proram—
 Longa hebetat sensim via fessas invia mentes;
 Littora vasta legunt, et inhospita regna, plagasque

^d The phosphoric brilliancy of the sea.

Sole putres: sylvæque supèr nigrantibus umbris
 Continuæ exterrēt: spes aurea deficit ægros.
 Nec tamen interea pelagi spectacula magni
 Nulla adsunt: noctu ardentes candescere tractus
 Per^d mare conspiciunt, et lucida terga supinat
 Oceanus, splendetque in versicoloribus undis.
 Nec^e raro obscuris decurrunt montibus amnes
 Ignivomi, flammisque (nefas) aqua plurima fluxit.
 Quinetiam^f noctu astrorum lunæque videtur
 Pura acies, radiosque et non sua fulgura mittunt
 Eminus, exæquatque diem lux æmula noctis.

Interea exactis completur mensibus annus,
 Admonuitque novæ sementi impendere curas.
 Se^g forte Oceanum fluviusolvebat ad altum
 Decolor, et flavas late jactabat arenas
 Ipse niger—Ripas et stagna udasque paludes
 Arbor^h inumbrabat, cui culmina flexa deorsum
 Nutabant: demum sibi surculus, alter et idem,
 Mox declinandum caput attollebat ad auras.
 Huic subeunt luco, et læti placida æquora verrunt.
 Pars inde infodiunt glebas, et semina sulcis

* This story is told of a later expedition, and has been supposed to have originated from a practice common among the natives of firing the grass along the river.

^f The stars of the tropical regions are much more brilliant than our own.

^g The Niger.

^h The Mangrove.

Committunt, messemque ferentia sidera servant.
Pars autem exquirunt loti dulcissima poma,
Poma quibus largè securus defluit humor,
Inducitque avidæ lethea oblivia menti.
Illi¹ per virides herbas potantque jacentque
Infortunati; ventisque insomnia mandant
Luctisonis, aliasque putant se invisere sedes,
Muscus ubi, et somni, gelidæque in montibus auræ.
Oceanumque odere, et tædia longa viarum.
Interea obrepit tacito per tempora gressu
Annus agitque vices: et cælo pronior æstas
Ingratos iterum cogit renovere meatus.
Ut tædet miseros duris incumbere remis,
Ut pluviis frontes rapidoque opponere soli,
Ægyptumque sequi fugientem erroribus ægris.

Mox loca prætereunt, tenues ubi visa per umbras
Littora purpureo funduntur lumine circum.
Nequidquam accessisse volunt. Nisi luce carentes
Nullos fata sinunt sedes lustrare beatas.
At montes aperire procul, fastigia quorum
Mille trahunt, nivibus suffulto sole, colores.
Hinc saltus pendent umbræque, et rura supinos
Lucida distinguunt colles; ubi ventus odores
Imbibit ambrosios: ductumque per æquora longè
Languescit varium melos, augeturque vicissim.

Qualiter it, queruloque viam modulamine fallens
Fessus arundinibus summis interstrepit Eurus.

Protinus adverso voces e littore terræ

Audiri: voces liquidæ et suavissima verba :
Subducto numeros nectunt Seirenes ab antro
Ætherios : fugienda canunt maris æquore salsi,
Otia tuta canunt, lectosque .irentis amcenè
Asphodeli, sociasque dapes, noctesque deorum,
Inde illi tenuere fugam, meliora secuti.

Continuo^k rupes supereminet ardua : vertex
Aerius consurgit acuto murice : ad auras
Hinc flammæ erumpunt, et liquitur igneus humor.
Illi longè infra spectant miracula rerum,
Oceanumque vident cælumque coloribus iisdem
Misceri, rutilique tremescere luminis haustu.
Scintillæque etiam noctis per aperta serena
Luce brevi splendent circum laquearia cœli,
Et nova sideribus succedunt sidera : at illos
Fata ferunt, ventique : juvat tamen ardua montis
Respicere, exstantesque infectis nubibus ignes.

Inter mille vices, inter portenta deorum
Inde iter absolvunt—Horrent procul ecce! columnæ
• Hercules, et sectum metantur limite mundum :
His in marmoribus sese astra cadentia rorant,
His sol purpureis devexus conditur : illuc
Mille rates hominumque videt commercia pontus,

^k The peak of Teneriffe—an extinct volcano.

Ostia percurrunt velis Phœnices apertis;
Jamque suos soles iterum, sua sidera norunt,
Et redit in cœlum priscus color; albaque saxis
Tecta albis hominum illucent; in littore noto
Stant proræ, et rerum species se pristina reddit.

Nec secus in somnis mens ipsa est visa vagari,
Difficilemque sequi callem incōmitata, neque ullam,
Multa per errores patiēdo, accedere metam;
Dum jubar exorti colles geniale diei
Scandit, et implicitos solvit lux alma meatus.
